

Booking online

For more information, please visit airpass.aa.com.

Where do I start?

Navigate to aa.com and log in with your AAdvantage® information; your AirPass account is linked with your AAdvantage number. Choose 'AirPass' from the 'Travel type' dropdown menu to ensure that you are in the AirPass booking path and enter your flight information.

The screenshot shows the American Airlines booking interface. At the top, there are three tabs: 'Book', 'Manage trips / Check-in', and 'Flight status'. Under the 'Book' tab, there are four sub-tabs: 'Flight' (selected), 'Vacation packages', 'Hotel', and 'Car'. Below these, there are radio buttons for 'Round trip' (selected) and 'One way', and a checkbox for 'Redeem miles'. The 'From' and 'To' fields are labeled 'City or airport' and have search icons. Below these, there are fields for 'Number of passengers' (set to 1), 'Depart' (mm/dd/yyyy), and 'Return' (mm/dd/yyyy). On the right, the 'Travel type' dropdown menu is open, showing options: 'Select' (checked), 'Personal travel', 'Business travel', and 'AirPass' (highlighted with a red box). At the bottom, there are links for 'Bag and optional fees', 'Changes to checked bag fees and allowances', and 'ID requirements are changing: Are you REAL ID ready?'. There is also a link for 'Advanced / Multi-city search' and a 'Travel alerts' button.

AirPass may be used with any one-way or round-trip flight marketed and operated by American Airlines, American Eagle, Finnair, Iberia and Japan Airlines. A separate reservation must be created for non-AirPass travel, including oneworld and codeshare partner reservations.

Only available flights and cabins will be displayed to AirPass members. Pricing will not be shown.

Economy, Premium Economy, Business and First class booking options all offer the same level of flexibility.

- No advance purchase requirement
- Books in full fare inventories (Y, W, J and F)
- No fees for changes or cancellations

The PlanAhead option is less flexible, but offers additional savings off of the Economy rate.

- 7-day advance purchase requirement
- Books in a limited inventory (H)
- No fees for changes or cancellations

When booking AirPass Economy, Main Cabin Extra and Preferred Seats are always complimentary for AirPass members.
